

In Chile the Driver's Licence Class A2 is a requirement to identify and applying professional driving technics used specially in taxis, ambulances or motorized vehicles in public & private transportation.

To have this licence, the driver must have a certified and approved course by the National Transport Department .

Automóvil Club
de Chile®